Dear Mr. Berman:

I would like to thank Adaptive Adventures for its generosity. Enabling our Wounded Warriors to attend the Winter Mountain Ski Camp in Steamboat Springs, Colorado, from 10-15 March 2006, was a wonderful gesture that will serve as a reminder to the troops and their families that their service has not gone unnoticed. It lets them know that their hard work and diligence are truly appreciated and that they are in the hearts and minds of those whose freedom they protect and defend.

It's great to know that these heroes are appreciated by all as their recovery continues. These service members and their families deserve special recognition for their bravery and dedication to their country. My personal thanks and appreciation go out to all who made this possible.

Sincerely,

James K. Gilman
